

Programme

Thursday, 10th Sept. 2009

From 9:15 hrs	Arrival and reception with early morning coffee
Presenter	Herbert Schalthoff, Journalist – Hamburg 1 (Hamburg)
10:45	Opening speech / Introduction Heiner Baumgarten, Managing Director, international garden show hamburg 2013 gmbh (igs 2013) Hans Gabányi, Head of the Directorate for Landscape and Open Space Planning at the Ministry of Urban Development and the Environment (BSU)
11:00	Teaser statement on the topic Friedrich Schirmer, Theatre Director, Schauspielhaus Hamburg
11:15	Introduction into the topic – Pushing for high quality open space Hans Gabányi, BSU and Heiner Baumgarten, igs 2013
11:30	Coffee break

Session 1: The Significance of Open Space and Green Open Space Within the Development of Towns

11:45	The Bauhaus leads to new landscapes Dr. Walter Prigge, Stiftung Bauhaus Dessau (Trust)
12:15	Changes to the meaning of „Green“ within town planning Prof. Dr. Christophe Girot (Zurich)
12:45	Developing Green Open Spaces – The world’s largest inner city park Prof. Dr. Jörg Dettmar, Consultant to the Management of the RUHR. 2010 GmbH (Essen)
13:15	Lunch break

Session 2: Exemplars for the Significance of Open Space Design

- 14:15 The Orange County Great Park – Sustainability as a principle for creating a new park in California (English)
Ken Smith, Landscape Architect (New York)
- 14:45 Zurich – Urban development through high quality open space
Ernst Tschannen, Director-General, Zurich
- 15:15 Hamburg – Urban development through high quality open space
Prof. Jörn Walter, Buildings Director-General Hamburg
- 15:45 Questions and Answers, discussion with the audience
- 16:15 Coffee break
- 16:45 Start of evening programme
Joint coach trip to Wilhelmsburg, walk-about on igs-site
- 19:15 Arrival at Landungsbrücken (main pier of the Port of Hamburg)
- 19:45 Cruise on the River Elbe (incl. dinner) on the vessel „Max Brauer“
- 21:45 Return to Landungsbrücken
Time at your disposal

Friday, 11th Sept. 2009

From 9:30 hrs Reception – handing out of name badges and information packs

10:30 Welcome address and introduction by presenter Mr Schalthoff

Session 3: How Much Quality Can Urban Green Space Cope With – Examples from Hamburg

10:45 How much quality can urban open spaces cope with?
Marcel Loko, Manager of Advertising Company „Zum Goldenen Hirschen“ (Hamburg)

11:05 How much quality can urban open spaces cope with?
Dr. Babette Peters, Director hamburgunddesign (Hamburg)

11:25 How much quality can urban open spaces cope with?
Axel Lohrer, Landscape Practice Lohrer/Hochrein (Magdeburg/Munich)

11:45 Coffee break

12:00 Summary and commentary by the presenter

12:15 Prof. Jörn Walter, Buildings Director-General Hamburg
The significance of Hamburg's green open space for the Hanseatic Town and its development – How does this relate to pushing for high quality open space

12:25 Panel discussion with Prof. Jörn Walter, Buildings Director-General Hamburg, with today's speakers and with Heiner Baumgarten, Managing Director, international garden show hamburg 2013 gmbh (igs 2013)

13:15 Conclusion - Hans Gabányi and Herbert Schalthoff

13:25 Lunch snack

14:00 End of conference and departure